

Physiatrists

Physiatrists are physicians who specialize in physical medicine and rehabilitation. They may specialize in certain areas such as pediatrics, spinal cord medicine, and sports medicine. To find out more, please contact the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

<http://www.aapmr.org>

American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (AAPMR)

One IBM Plaza, Suite 2500

Chicago, IL 60611-3604

Phone: 312-464-9700

Email: info@aapmr.org

The patients & family section of AAPMR's website includes information on physiatrists and common disorders treated by physiatrists, as well as a searchable database of physiatrists.

<http://www.aapmr.org/patients/aboutpmr/Pages/physiatrist.aspx>

American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation's What is a Physiatrist?

<http://www.aapmr.org/patients/findphysician/Pages/default.aspx>

AAPMR's Find a Physiatrist

Click on your state to find a physiatrist in your area

<http://www.makoa.org/nscia/fact11.html>

National Spinal Cord Injury Association's Fact Sheet "What is a Physiatrist?"

<http://www.physiatry.org/>

Association of Academic Physiatrists

7250 Parkway Drive, Suite 130

Hanover, Maryland 21076

Phone: 410-712-7120

AAP is a national organization of physiatrists who are affiliated with medical schools. The Association works to promote the advancement of teaching and research in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation within an academic environment.

The information contained in this message is presented for the purpose of educating and informing you about paralysis and its effects. Nothing contained in this message should be construed nor is intended to be used for medical diagnosis or treatment. It should not be used in place of the advice of your physician or other qualified health care provider. Should you have any health care related questions, please call or see your physician or other qualified health care provider promptly. Always consult with your physician or other qualified health care provider before embarking on a new treatment, diet or fitness program. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read in this message.